

“No ‘Endless Summer’ Here...But...”

Psalm 90
August 31, 2008

Introduction

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

When contrasted with eternity, human life is disappointingly short, but there is a way of great hope available, if we would take it.

We are asked to consider the eternity of God.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

We are asked to consider the shortness of our lives and the swiftness of our days.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

We are invited to consider the pursuit of a heart of wisdom.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Sermon recordings on CD are available by filling out a request envelope at the Media Ministries table in the foyer.

“No ‘Endless Summer’ Here...But...”

Psalm 90
August 31, 2008

Introduction

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

When contrasted with eternity, human life is disappointingly short, but there is a way of great hope available, if we would take it.

We are asked to consider the eternity of God.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

We are asked to consider the shortness of our lives and the swiftness of our days.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

We are invited to consider the pursuit of a heart of wisdom.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Sermon recordings on CD files are available by filling out a request envelope at the Media Ministries table in the foyer.

Announcements continued

August 31, 2008

Nursery Fall helpers- Please see Shelly Miller this morning at the Sunday school registration table before and after 2nd service if you are interested in helping us in the nursery this fall. You will be blessed with ministering to our young families this way.

Adult Sunday School: New class options begin Sept. 7. Sign up at the ministry tables in the foyer so we can order materials.

- Galatians—Paul’s epistle to the Galatians, teacher is Paul Rainbow
- “The Way of the Master”—how to share the gospel effectively, teacher is Brian Hansen from Fellowship of Christian Athletes
- “Discovery Class”—study of Evangelical Free church beliefs, recommended for those considering church membership, teacher is Pastor James Swanson
- College/Career class—“The Pleasures of God” by John Piper, teacher is Pastor Randy Anderson

Pictures of the 2008 Church Camp-Out are on the Congregational Exchange table in the old foyer. Please help yourself to them and take as many as you would like before they are discarded.

Check the bulletin board across from the nursery for pictures of the eleven FEFC summer backyard Bible clubs.

Attention Moms! Moms in Touch International gathers moms together to pray specifically and Scripturally for their children in school or college. Won't you join with us in prayer for this next generation? There is a group for nearly every school in Sioux Falls and a group praying for college and career age. Please contact Lisa Paulson, 605-338-1731, mitiSD@MomsInTouch.org for more information on a group for you to pray with others.

Summer Reading Challenge The following have completed their reading logs in the FEFC library’s Summer Reading Challenge: Dylon Taubert, Junior Division 3-4, Trevor Howe, Junior Division 3-4, Keegan Howe, Junior Division 5-6, Jennifer Koehn, Senior Division, Katie Odland, Senior Division, and Faith Oygard, Senior Division. Thanks for participating and doing much reading!

Ladies: If you are interested in tickets for the “Women of Faith” conference on October 17 in Minneapolis, call Deb Washington at Central Baptist Church, 338-3200.

First Priority, with our own Grant Sather, is looking for help in packing freshman survival kits for high school freshmen. Founder and president of First Priority, Benny Proffitt, will speak. More information at the Welcome Center.

DONATIONS! We will be accepting donations again this fall for our church’s freezer ministry. If you have anything in the church freezer downstairs not ministry related, please remove it within the next week or two to make room for all the meals to come. Any items left will be used, if possible, for this ministry. Thank you! Kristin Kroesche

Announcements continued

August 31, 2008

Nursery Fall helpers- Please see Shelly Miller this morning at the Sunday school registration table before and after 2nd service if you are interested in helping us in the nursery this fall. You will be blessed with ministering to our young families this way.

Adult Sunday School: New class options begin Sept. 7. Sign up at the ministry tables in the foyer so we can order materials.

- Galatians—Paul’s epistle to the Galatians, teacher is Paul Rainbow
- “The Way of the Master”—how to share the gospel effectively, teacher is Brian Hansen from Fellowship of Christian Athletes
- “Discovery Class”—study of Evangelical Free church beliefs, recommended for those considering church membership, teacher is Pastor James Swanson
- College/Career class—“The Pleasures of God” by John Piper, teacher is Pastor Randy Anderson

Pictures of the 2008 Church Camp-Out are on the Congregational Exchange table in the old foyer. Please help yourself to them and take as many as you would like before they are discarded.

Check the bulletin board across from the nursery for pictures of the eleven FEFC summer backyard Bible clubs.

Attention Moms! Moms in Touch International gathers moms together to pray specifically and Scripturally for their children in school or college. Won't you join with us in prayer for this next generation? There is a group for nearly every school in Sioux Falls and a group praying for college and career age. Please contact Lisa Paulson, 605-338-1731, mitiSD@MomsInTouch.org for more information on a group for you to pray with others.

Summer Reading Challenge The following have completed their reading logs in the FEFC library’s Summer Reading Challenge: Dylon Taubert, Junior Division 3-4, Trevor Howe, Junior Division 3-4, Keegan Howe, Junior Division 5-6, Jennifer Koehn, Senior Division, Katie Odland, Senior Division, and Faith Oygard, Senior Division. Thanks for participating and doing much reading!

Ladies: If you are interested in tickets for the “Women of Faith” conference on October 17 in Minneapolis, call Deb Washington at Central Baptist Church, 338-3200.

First Priority, with our own Grant Sather, is looking for help in packing freshman survival kits for high school freshmen. Founder and president of First Priority, Benny Proffitt, will speak. More information at the Welcome Center.

DONATIONS! We will be accepting donations again this fall for our church’s freezer ministry. If you have anything in the church freezer downstairs not ministry related, please remove it within the next week or two to make room for all the meals to come. Any items left will be used, if possible, for this ministry. Thank you! Kristin Kroesche